

EVERYONE’S RESPONSIBILITY • Make people at risk aware of their rights • Be proactive in promoting well-being • Give information, advice and support • Promote early intervention and action • Promote prevention • Work proactively with people at risk and other agencies
SOCIAL CARE AND HEALTH PROVIDERS • Show leadership and routinely monitor activity • Meet the required service quality standards – including safe recruitment • Train staff in safeguarding procedures and ensure they are effectively implemented • Investigate and respond effectively to incidents, complaints and whistle-blowers • Take disciplinary action against staff who have abused or neglected people in their care		SOCIAL CARE AND HEALTH COMMISSIONERS • Build safeguarding into commissioning strategies and service contracts • Review and monitor services regularly • Intervene (in partnership) where services fall below fundamental standards or abuse is taking place
CLINICIANS • Apply clinical governance standards for conduct, care and treatment, and information sharing • Report incidents of abuse, neglect or undignified treatment • Follow-up referrals • Consult patients and take responsibility for ongoing patient care • Lead and support enquiries into abuse or neglect where there is need for clinical input.	SOCIAL WORKERS/CARE MANAGERS • Identify and respond to concerns • Identify with people (or their representatives if they lack capacity) the outcomes they want • Build managing safeguarding risks and benefits into care planning with people • Review care plans • Build resilience • Promote recovery and resolution	SAFEGUARDING TEAM • Provide specialist advice and co-ordination • Lead and support enquiries into abuse or neglect • Make enquiries (or request others to do so) • Work with the person subject to abuse – and monitor their outcomes • Co-ordinate who will do what – to achieve person’s outcomes and protection for wider public	POLICE • Investigate possible crimes • Conduct investigations (with partners) • Gather best evidence to maximise the prospects for prosecuting offenders • Achieve, with partners, the best protection and support for the person experiencing abuse or neglect – including victim support
SAFEGUARDING ADULTS BOARDS • Hold partners to account • Monitor outcomes and effectiveness • Use data and intelligence to identify risk and act on it • Co-ordinate activity		JERSEY CARE COMMISSION • Register, monitor, inspect and regulate services to make sure they provide people with safe, effective, compassionate, high-quality care • Intervene and take regulatory action on breaches • Publish findings	